ABOUT EARTHSHARE NC

At EarthShare NC you will be part of a creative and dynamic organization that is forging new ground to strengthen the conservation movement. Our unique niche is at the intersection of business and non-profits where we partner with businesses to make a positive impact on the environment through employee giving and engagement programs. We connect their employees with the work of our Member nonprofits who are experts in their fields, working on conservation issues critical to NC's health, economy, and quality of life, including clean air and drinking water, land preservation, healthy rivers and streams, places for recreation, wildlife protection, local farms and food, and preservation of all the natural resources that make NC special.

ABOUT WORKING AT EARTHSHARE NC

EarthShare NC is all about relationships. We are a coalition of thirty Member nonprofits, fifteen board Members and a network of corporate and community relationships coordinated by a small, mission-driven staff of three. We have clear lines of responsibility while also working in a very integrated and dynamic style, leveraging the collective experiences and expertise of all of our staff members to continuously make the organization a stronger force for conservation.

SUMMARY OF JOB DESCRIPTION

The Outreach and Engagement Director will be a critical player on our team, taking the lead role to maximize the value we create for Member nonprofits through workplace partnerships. They will develop and implement innovative strategies to engage employees in the work of EarthShare NC Members based on trends in the field of workplace giving, corporate social responsibility and employee engagement. They will use communications strategies as a key tactic to deepen engagement with all EarthShare NC audiences.

Responsibilities Include:

Campaign Management - 30%

- Develop workplace campaign strategies with the Executive Director to increase funds raised for Member nonprofits
- Implement workplace giving campaign plans, providing materials, communications and speakers
- Manage local government and private sector campaign contracts, providing training and coordination for combined campaigns that EarthShare NC administers
